NATIONAL LUTHERAN SCHOOLS WEEK: Today we are celebrating National Lutheran

Schools Week at St. John. Our 60+ Lutheran schools and early childhood centers here in the Ohio District join together with our network of nearly 2,300 LCMS preschools, elementary schools and high schools throughout the nation to celebrate God's work among us. Special assemblies, dress up days, prayer services, and other fun activities are planned.

This year's theme is "Real. Present. God." God is present in all our schools and, through the Holy Spirit, works in powerful ways each day. In our schools, our "Real. Present. God." shares His presence with us in the person and atoning work of Jesus, who is our very foundation. However, what is most significant about Lutheran schools is that they worship, teach and share the Real. Present. God. God is real; God is present; God is God. He is the real reason for Lutheran schools and the real celebration of National Lutheran Schools Week.

EAGLE NEWS: The Eagle News publication is being passed out today. Extra copies are available on the narthex table and also online via FastDirect Communication.
