ADULT BIBLE STUDY – ROMANS 14

As we come to the end of the Letter to the Romans, St. Paul gets very practical in dealing with our life together in Christ's congregation. Specifically, he addresses how people often judge one another in matters in which we are actually free. Those who are strong in Christian faith are tempted to despise those weaker in faith for their lack of understanding, while those who are weak in faith are tempted to judge their fellow Christians who exercise Christian freedom. Join us this morning for Bible Study as we explore how Paul deals with these things, and let us grow together in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior!

NEW STAINED GLASS WINDOW #10 – Please take note of the newly installed stained glass window, depicting a scene from the Gospel of John, chapter 8, the adulterous woman and the mercy of her Savior. Read more about it in the insert in today's bulletin.

SUB SANDWICH THANK YOU: The Sr/Jr High Youth would like to thank those who purchased subs for the Super Bowl. The youth made over 225 subs. Once again, thank you for supporting our youth! Hope to see some of you at our upcoming LYF sponsored Lenten Suppers too.

WHY LUTHERAN SCHOOLS? Seeking the Lost: Lutheran schools, which enroll children from all parts of the community, provide new and varied opportunities for evangelism by the congregation and its staff. These opportunities are not available in any other way. That's why Lutheran schools are considered the most effective agencies in congregational evangelism and why pastors of growing congregations with schools in nearly every case, identify the school as the congregation's most effective outreach agency. 85% of the fastest growing congregations in the Synod operate schools.

THANKS TO EVERYONE for making National Lutheran Schools Week such a fun week! Each day was filled with an activity for the entire school to enjoy. Thank you to the teachers and staff for all your efforts. The week ended with the students going to Genacross Lutheran Home, Napoleon, singing songs, and distributing homemade greeting cards to the residents. The reaction from the residents told all of us how important these simple acts of kindness mean to them. Their faces lit up when they received their cards and some even sang along with our songs.

Making the fleece blankets was another fun project. Thank you to Thrivent Action Team for providing some of the funding for this project. We were able to make 17 blankets to be given to Phil's Friends organization. They give these blankets to cancer patients receiving chemo or radiation therapy all over the United States. We are also still collecting small tissue packets, travel-size toothpaste, toothbrushes, lip balm, hats, etc. to be sent to Phil's Friends on Tuesday, Feb. 25th. There is a box in the cafeteria to put your donated items into. Thank you for any and all donations you send in.

WHERE CHRISTIANITY MEETS CULTURE...Issues, Etc. is a radio talk show and podcast produced by Lutheran Public Radio in Collinsville, IL and hosted by LCMS Pastor Todd Wilken. This week's topics include: Defending Boyhood, The Academy Awards, The Death of Education, Rebuilding Institutions and more. You can listen live or on-demand at issuesetc.org and on the LPR mobile app.

LADIES BLANKET KNOTTING OR QUILTING is planned for all day Monday, Feb. 17. Got cabin fever? Come and join us! There will be blanket knotting for those that do not wish to quilt. We will start at 9:00 AM. All ladies of the congregation are invited. You can come and stay all day or just part of the day; whatever fits your schedule. Hope to see you on Feb. 17th!

MIDWEEK CONFIRMATION CLASS DURING LENT – Beginning Ash Wednesday, Feb. 26, the midweek confirmation class will meet from 5:45 to 6:45 p.m., dismissing in time for students and families to attend the midweek Lenten service.

Lent Midweek 2020

One of the Bible's greatest wisdom books is The Book of Job. In our midweek services this Lent we will explore this magnificent composition that is among the greatest literature of all time. Readings at home and nine sermons will help us dig deeply into Job's central message.

We all suffer—personally and privately. A husband loses a job. A child gets divorced. A diagnosis stuns. A parent dies. And now, thanks to the media, we are able to see and experience more of the world's catastrophes and suffering. We need the Book of Job, now, more than ever.

Martin Luther asserted that "Job is magnificent and sublime as no book of Scripture." Others have called this book "the Shakespeare of the Bible." The early Christian scholar Jerome called The Book of Job an "eel," since the more one tries to contain it, the more slippery it becomes! The purpose of our Lenten emphasis is to learn how to apply The Book of Job to our lives so that the book becomes less like an eel and more like a loving companion through life's dark valleys.

Preaching plans are as follows:

- Ash Wednesday: Flying Blind (Job 1:1–12)
- Lent 2: Sweet Surrender (Job 1:13–21)
- Lent 3: Learning to Lament (Job 3:1–26)
- Lent 4: It Is Enough (Job 14:1–14)
- Lent 5: Understanding How It All Works Together (Job 23:1–17)
- Lent 6: God Speaks in the Storm (Job 38:1–11)
- Maundy Thursday: On Earth Is Not His Equal! (Job 41:20–34)
- Good Friday: Tearing Down the Spite House (Job 42:7–9)
- Easter Sunrise: I Know That My Redeemer Lives! (Job 19:23–26)

Job's most famous statement appears in 19:25, "I know that my Redeemer lives." Christ is alive, having conquered death and the grave. His grace is enough. His love brings comfort and healing. And this Lent these gifts come to us through The Book of Job.

Lent begins Ash Wednesday, Feb. 26 ♦ Worship at 7:00 p.m.

WINTER PARKING LOT ASSISTANCE – If you are able-bodied and sure-footed, please consider serving God’s people by coming a little early on those Sundays when the winter weather is a bit dicey, to help park cars for those who come to the carport, and/or to go outside and give an arm to assist those who need help walking across the parking lot. No need to sign up – just show up a little early to lend a helping hand. Thank you!

If God is tugging at you to serve the children in this way, please speak with Pastor Niermann, and we’ll start the planning.

OLD SCHOOL RENOVATION BROCHURES – Recently the Old School Renovation Finance Committee sent out a mailing to St. John Lutheran Church members and to SJLS Alumni with an informational brochure about the Old School renovation, and the opportunity to participate in this project through monetary gifts. If you would expect to have received this mailing but for some reason did not, please accept our apology (nothing is perfect in this world), and pick up one of these brochures in the narthex. Thank you to everyone for your gifts and donations to this project!

FOOD FOR THOUGHT...

If you would be heaven-bound, you must first be heaven-born.

“Jesus answered, ‘Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God.’” John 3:5
